Warrenton to Have Country Club and First-Class Racing.

AFTONGREEN

Devil Hal - Foals of English Sires-Black Socks, High-Jumper.

One of the neatest and most interesting publications of the season, to reach my desk, is the 1006 catalogue of the Afton-green Stud, of General William T. Townes, Culpeper, Va. The compilation is the work of General Townes, and displays a knowledge of the subject pos-sessed only by students of blood lines. Imported Potentate, a chestnut horse, bred by Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, 's the stallion in use. He is by Peter, son of Hermit, dam Cutty Sark, by the famous Blair Athol. Twenty brood mares are listed and they form it choice collection. Among them are Katle C., by Imp. Charaxus, dam Elite, by Eolus; Counterbreeze, by Eolus, dam Countersign, by War Dance; Verbena, by Hidman, dam Virgo, by Abdel Kader; Turca, by Tristan or Turce, dam Silver Blue by Longfellow; Bontie Lizzie, H., by Uncas, dam Wyandotte, by Imp. Leamington; Bonnie Osra, by Eondam Olitips, by Jmp. Leamington; Merry Dawn, by Eon, dam Mermaid, dain of Mörryday and Eonic, by Imp. St. Blaise; Cremona, by Regultal, Ram Afterglow, by Hanover, Will-Othe-Wisp, by Imp. St. Georgedian imp. Free Will, by Friar Rush; Jeannie Marie, by Imp. Wagner, den Lottle Carpenter, by Macduff; Lusty, full sister of Katle C.; Runle, full sistor to Merry Dawn; Swivit, by Imp. Hermence, dam Little Sisterly, by Revenue, Jr.; Djamontina, by Eon, dam Eonste, by Imp. Charaxus; Mary Melton, by Imp. Fatherless, dam Katle C., and Workmald, by Fatherless, dam Ketwork, by Eon.

Arrangements are progressing satisface. lection. Among them are Katle C., by Fatheriess, dam Katie C., and Workmald, by Fatherless, dam Network, by Eon.

Arrangements are progressing satisfact torily for the organization of a country club at Warrenton, Va., the membership of which will include prominent New Yorkees, Philadelphians and Virginians, to revive high-class racing among both gentlemen riders and professionals in this State. An option has been taken on property right hear Warrenton, on which there is room for a three-quarter mile track, and an excellent steeplechase course. Among the men back of the scheme, are H. C. Groom, formerly of Philadelphia, who has a handsone place near Warrenton, it. D. Passano, of Warrenton, who has charge of the business arrangements: Robert Goelet, Jr., Temple Gwathmey "Mr. Cotton," all of New York, al of whom own places near Warrenton, and hunt with the Warrenton hounds; George Muerling, James K. Maddux, E. Astier-Cooper, Col. Thomas Smith, E. R. W. Barker and J. D. Hall, Jr. In addition ito these, many others will, of course, become members of the club, but the list furnished includes those whose joint subscriptions amount to thousands of dollars and who will be permaiont stockholders. Under present plans of the organisers of the Warrenton club, affairs will be in running order by the last of August or first of Septomber. Its opening will probably be inaugurated with symkana races and a regular meeting will be held in October or November.

The best bred probably, and certainly the most thought of yearling, owned by g. Walton, at Walton Farim, Falls Mills, Va., is the black colt, Devill Hall, by Direct Hall, 2941-2, dnm Regardless Maid, by Dare Devil, 2:09, second dam Regent's Last, dam of The Aristocrat, 2:12, by Prince Regent, 2:191-4, who was purchased in Ulero, with his dam, at the closing out sale of Village (Farim, The youngster's galls are not yet pronounced, as he paces going dewn hill and trots on an ascending grade; in other words it may be taken that the small son of Village Farim's great moncy winner, is very much mixed gaited, as are most of Direct Hal's get at the same day, but strong hopes are centered in his taking to the lateral galt, as Walton Farim has mover sent out a pacer, though back in the early nineties, Thomas Settle took good trotters from the farm, like Skillitul, 2:17-1-4, Catharine Leyburn, 2:18-1-4 and others. Regardless Maid, the dam of Devil Hall, is only seven years 14 and others. Regardless Maid, the dam of Devil Hal, is only seven years old, and later, it is the intention to have her trained and marked, as with ninety day's work at Village Farm, she trotted a quarter in 33 seconds, coming the last eight in 16 seconds—a two-minute calt.

It is most interesting to note the number of foals to the credit of famous English sizes during 1905, these youngsters now being their yearling form and duly registered with the Jockey Club. The list is headed by St. Fruskin, with 33, then follows:

May Stannard, Loving Bell and Wandering bred to Sam Corey.

W. W. Osborne, of Springfields Stock Farm, Gordonsville, Va., who has been nursing a broken log for months past, is now on the improving list, and expects to take a good stable of bunters and jumpers down the line of Virginia horse shows. One of the most promising jumpers in the stable, is Black Books, thoroughbred, daughter of Rapaldo, from Fast Black. She has cleared the bars at six feet and over, and should develop sensational form.

Mr. Joseph Wilmer, of Rapidan, Va.,

Mr. Joseph Wilmer, of Rapidan, Va., who has been touring Europe, is oxpected home soon. Mr. Wilmer is deeply interested in agriculture, and owns Horse Shoe Farm, a fine estate near Rapidan; while with his brother, Mr. W. N. Wilmer, of New York, he is interested in some valuable Albemarle real estate.

This interesting class in "horse judging" at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute is taught by Dr. J. G. Ferneyhough, State veterinarian. It is composed of junior classmen, all good students, who seem much interested in this work. In addition to his lectures, Dr. Ferneyhough has given his students a good deal of practical experience in going out and judging and scoring horses. In the last four months these young men have critically judged and scored over sixty horses, including Percheron standardbred, thoroughbred, French conch, hackney and gaited saddle horses as well as many half-breeds and ordinary horses. The students are especially drilled as to the soundness and general conformation of individual horses, the defects that should be cut cut in breeding classes, etc. The members of the class are Mesers Anderson B. Blandford, D. S. Bridgeforth, G. B. Bishop, J. L. Fred, E. B. Hutcherson, J. R. Holmes, H. S. and E. W. Lawson. Unfortunately Mesers. Lawson and Bridgeforth were not at the class the day the photograph was taken for the Times-Dispatch. The man to the right holding the spotted horse is not a student. Or, Ferneyhough is sitting on the grass.

Waterbury Brothers and Tenny, a tric of musicians, are well known in the South. They have, lowever, a new act, which has never been seen in Richmond. The two Waterburys are the straight musicians, while Ernest Tenny furnishes the comedy—in black face—and a very good comedy—in black face—and a very good comedy it is. Their music is of a high order, and altogether it is a very credit-able act.

musical class gave its final recital at Chester Masonic Hall.

The hall was woll filled with parents and friends of the scholars and much congratulation must be bestowed upon Miss Shead for the manner in which the programme was carried out and to the success of the same.

All the students showed a much marked improvement, and it is sincerely hoped that even next year's class will be a far more successful one.

The first two gold medals were awarded to Miss Alma Jones and Miss Lucy Strother, while, the two siver medals were won by Miss Dalls Shaw and Miss Ashton Hatcher.

The medals were presented by the Rev. H. J. Paylor, who in a well delivered address, thanked Miss Shead in behalf of the citizens of Chester, for her faithfulness towards her scholars.

The entertainment was a great success and enjoyed by many out-of-town cess and enjoyed by many out-of-town friends.

Poetry at $1,875 a Line.

The highest price ever paid for poetry poem, says the San Francisco Chronicle. It was not a good poem, either. James Smith, one of the authors of "Rejected Addresses," wrote it. Smith met one night at dinner in London, Strachan, the night at dinner in London, Strachan, the famous English printer. Strachan, what with old age and gout, was most infirm. Indeed, he could hardly walk. But his mind was exceedingly powerful and brilliant, and he talked so well that Smith, on his return home, wrote the following degrees about the old man; Your lower limbs seemed far from stout, When last I saw you walk. The cause I presently found out When you began to talk,

In due proportion spread, In you mounts upward, and the strength

All settles in the head.

Though this was undeniably rank postry and ranker flattery, it pleased Prince Strachan so well that he added to his will a codicil giving Smith $15,000.
